

COVID-19 Rent Relief

COVID-19 rent relief helps income-eligible households pay rent and utilities, both for past due and future payments. Both landlords and tenants may be eligible for relief. For additional information, call Rent Relief at 833-430-2122 or visit

https://housing.ca.gov/covid_rr/index.html

Para obtener información y asistencia de ayuda para pagar la renta CA COVID 19, llame al 833-430-2122.

City of Los Angeles Emergency Renters Assistance Program

The application period to apply for the 2021 COVID-19 City of Los Angeles Emergency Renters Assistance Program (ERAP) has ended. For those that submitted an application, you can check the status of your application at https://cityoflaprod.service-now.com/eras?id=status_lookup_era or call the ERAP hotline at 833-373-0587. Payments have begun for those tenants that have been approved and payments will continue until the end of December 2021. For those that were not able to apply before the deadline, the application may open again if additional funds become available. If the application opens again, the application link will appear at <https://hcidla.lacity.org/>.

In the City of Los Angeles, a tenant cannot be evicted in June. The City has an ordinance in place to protect tenants that have unpaid rent due to COVID-19 until the end of the local emergency declaration but no sooner than August 1, 2022. If you receive an eviction notice, please file a complaint by calling (866) 557-7368 or <https://hcidapp.lacity.org/Rent/InvestigationEnforcement/IEComplaintForm/FillComplaintForm?culture=en>. For more information regarding the COVID-19 renter protections, please click <https://hcidla2.lacity.org/highlights/renter-protections>.

LA County Department of Public Social Services (DPSS)

The DPSS offers various services to assist families and individuals who are homeless or at risk of becoming homeless. To apply for one of DPSS' cash/financial assistance programs, access one of the following links:

- General Relief: <https://dpss.lacounty.gov/en/cash/gr/housing.html>--if you are a single adult or couple with no minor children
- CalWORKS: <https://dpss.lacounty.gov/en/cash/calworks/homeless.html>--if you are a family with minor children or if you are pregnant
- Refugee Cash Assistance: <https://dpss.lacounty.gov/en/cash/rca.html>--if you are a refugee

Stay Housed LA

Stay Housed L.A. offers resources and assistance regarding tenants' rights and legal support. Visit <https://www.stayhousedla.org/> for more information.

If you live in the Culver City area of Del Rey, you may be eligible for the State rental assistance program. Follow this link <https://www.stayhousedla.org/rentalassistance/> for more information.

Visit <https://www.stayhousedla.org/workshops> for a list of upcoming workshops you can attend to learn more about tenants' rights.

Visit <https://www.stayhousedla.org/referral> to be referred for legal assistance or call 888-694-0040.

Home Safe Program for Older and Dependent Adults

The Department of Social Service's (DPSS) Home Safe Program provides housing-related assistance for older and dependent adults at risk of or experiencing homelessness.

For more information, please call 213-630-1589 or email APShomesafe@wdacs.lacounty.gov.

Universal Housing Application (UHA)

The UHA is a new online system that can help LAHSA's clients, providers, and partners shave up to 30 days off the housing application process.

Read more about the UHA here:

<https://lahsa.org/news?article=825-new-universal-housing-application-provides-faster-access-to-permanent>

Housing Central Command

The decentralized nature of local government in Los Angeles presents unique challenges to our rehousing system. To respond to those challenges, LAHSA created Housing Central Command:

<https://lahsa.org/hcc/about>

Hunger Action Education

Hunger Action Los Angeles (HALA) works to end hunger and promote healthy eating. Check out the resources available on their website <https://www.hungeractionla.org>